Office of Family Life Ministry

The Office of Family Life Ministry provides services to family life ministers that enriches the family as the basic unit of the domestic church. Our initiatives and programs help engaged and married couples respond to God's call to a joyful life of love for the good of their families, the Church, and our society at large. Director: Ricardo Medina rmedina@archgh.org

Office of Worship

The ministry of Worship seeks to make liturgy the source of spiritual growth and development of the Church. It serves as a resource center for liturgical ministry materials, ministry formation and consultation. Director: Adam Brill abrill@archgh.org

Office of Pro-Life Activities

The Pro-Life office sponsors apostolates to bring about a conversión of heart and mind for a true appreciation for God's gift of life from conception to natural death. It strives to shape the public discusión where it must ultimately focus on the morality and legality of abortion, euthanasia, suicide, capital punishment, war and stem cell research while bringing God's loving mercy to suffering men and women through the Gabriel Project, Project Rachel and Courage. Director: Julie Dumalet jdumalet@archgh.org

All of these offices fall under the supervisión of the Secretariat of Pastoral and Educational Ministries: Director: James Barrette jbarrette@archgh.org
