

Part-Time Music Director

Rice University Catholic Student Center

1703 Bolsover St.
Houston, TX 77005

Summary

The Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston is seeking candidates for the position of Part-Time Music Director at Rice University Catholic Center. The Music Director will work to prepare and lead music for Masses held at St. Mary Chapel located at Rice University on Sundays at 10:00 am (52 weeks) and at 5:30 pm (during the academic semester). The Music Director will also help with liturgies for Holy Days of Obligation, Ash Wednesday, and during Holy Week. This position is not benefits or PTO eligible. The Part-Time Music Director must be a practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church.

Education/Experience

Undergraduate studies or BA degree, major or studies, in music, theology or ministry preferred.

Musical training, or instruction and experience required to demonstrate successful mastery of a musical instrument in solo performance and accompaniment modes, and proven capacity to direct a choir, cantors and musicians in liturgical celebrations. Mastery of the piano is preferred so that the music director can lead music solo when needed.

Suitable candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and salary expectations* via email to resume@archgh.org Please place Part-Time Music Director Rice University on subject line.

 Applicants who do not include salary expectations may not receive consideration.*